

The Fourquarean-Price Co.

A Plain Statement.

It is our belief that there does not exist in any mercantile house in the South so large and varied a stock of FALL GOODS as is now displayed on our counters. For six weeks the newest things have been steadily coming in. Do not for a moment suppose we have everything, but we have the best things and many more of them than can be seen elsewhere.

BRILLIANT DRESS FABRICS.

You must have a dress; that is a sure point. What, where, and when may still be an open question, but they wouldn't be if you knew of the attractions of our collection of Fall Novelties. We really haven't a common-place effect in the entire assortment. Every one stands distinctly as a superior creation—superiorly created. The best brains have thought out the patterns and trimmings. They are the work of masters. They are exclusively different from any you will run across. They are ours—by virtue of special and individual introduction. They never found prices "closer reeled." They are not a penny dearer than their actual worth rates them. We cite a few examples of greatness, goodness, cheapness:

UPHOLSTERY.
Mr. C. B. Howell, late of the firm of Howell & Shaw, is in charge of this department, and he will be glad to call upon any one wishing furniture re-upholstered or repaired.
Under his supervision we are manufacturing new furniture to order—Mattresses, Pillows, etc. Parties desiring special designs in Parlor or Library Suits, Couches, or Lounges, we would be pleased to submit estimates.
